

OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND HOG ISLAND TEEN CAMPS 2025

Hello,

Merrymeeting Audubon, a Chapter of Maine Audubon, has reserved two spaces and is offering two scholarships to attend teen (ages 14-17 in June 2025) camps this coming summer. This program is located at the Hog Island Audubon Camp, Bremen, ME.

Here is a link to a description of the program:

(Coastal Maine Bird Studies for Teens Two: June 15 - 20, 2025)

Eligibility:

The applicant must attend a high school or be home schooled within the Chapter's catchment area which encompasses:

- RSU1 Bath, Phippsburg, Woolwich
- RSU2 Dresden, Richmond
- RSU4 Litchfield
- RSU5 Durham, Freeport, Pownal
- MSAD75 Bowdoin, Bowdoinham, Harpswell, Topsham
- AOS98 Boothbay, Boothbay Harbor, Georgetown, Southport
- Other Arrowsic, Brunswick, Lisbon/Lisbon Falls, West Bath, Westport Island, Wiscasset
- Homeschoolers who live in these towns may also apply

The camper will be selected on the basis of a one-page student essay and the teacher's recommendation. The student should explain why they are interested in birds and what they hope to learn. The completed student application, essay, and recommendation are due by February 4, 2025.

Award:

The scholarship will cover the full camp tuition of ($1,725). If selected, the student is responsible for submitting the Hog Island registration forms.

To apply:

Here is a link to the application: 2025 Application

If you have questions, please contact:

Joan Newkirk

mainejoan123@gmail.com

Glenn Evans

evans.glenn243@gmail.com