

Hello Educators!

Merrymeeting Audubon is pleased to announce an exciting opportunity for an elementary or middle school teacher. We are offering a scholarship to Sharing Nature: An Educator's Week, which will be held August 9 – August 14, 2026 at the Hog Island National Audubon camp in Bremen, Maine. You can find more information about this program at:

Sharing Nature: An Educator's Week | Hog Island Audubon Camp

You must live or work in our catchment area:

RSU1 Bath, Phippsburg, Woolwich

RSU2 Dresden, Richmond

RSU4 Litchfield

RSU5 Durham, Freeport, Pownal

MSAD75 Bowdoin, Bowdoinham, Harpswell, Topsham

AOS98 Boothbay, Boothbay Harbor, Georgetown, Southport

Other Arrowsic, Brunswick, Lisbon/Lisbon Falls, West Bath, Westport Island, Wiscasset

Interested teachers should submit an application (attached) by Monday March 2.

After reviewing the applications and letters, the scholarship committee will inform the winning applicant and Hog Island of its choice. Hog Island will in turn send registration materials to the scholarship recipient.

Upon completion of the program, the successful applicant will be asked to write a brief description of their experience, (or give a presentation) to be shared with members of Merrymeeting Audubon and its board. Such feedback is important to the board's fund raising efforts.

Applications and letters may be submitted to:

Hog Island Educator's Application 2026

I am happy to answer any questions.

Glenn Evans

evans.glenn243@gmail.com